Symphony

In an era of classical crossover we present you something exceptional, dynamic, provocative and mind blowing!

Almazian Symphony - an international orchestra of 20 excellent, classically trained and beautiful women. This ensemble founded and directed by Armenian violinist Khachatur Almazian and Serbian cellist Tamara Savic, will change your approach to music forever!

Because of such a diversity of their musical style, but at the same time always remaining highly virtuoso skilled, they brought the interest of many big producers, which lead to release of their first album "Pop Symphony" for Sony Music Entertainment in cooperation with French National TV. The album "Pop Symphony" received huge media coverage in France and French speaking countries.

A special moment in their career is a cooperation with one of the greatest film directors Emir Kusturica. Almazian Symphony recorded soundtrack for Kusturica's big upcoming movie "On The Milky Road", starring Monica Bellucci!

In 2008 orchestra made the opening of Kustendorf Film & Music Festival, later Kusturica engaged Almazian Symphony to record the soundtrack for his "Cool Water" movie, co-produced by Johnny Depp (production postponed). In 2010, Khachatur Almazian, this time as a producer, invited Emir Kusturica and his band The No Smoking Orchestra to Armenia. New cooperation was in 2014 - recording soundtrack for Kusturica's upcoming film "On The Milky Road", starring Monica Bellucci (premier in Cannes 2016).

In October 2015, Almazian Symphony and The No Smoking Orchestra will perform in Yerevan, Armenia.
